THIS PAPER is published on the 21st of October, 1885, at the office of the publisher, JAMES J. NASH, in the city of Tombstone, Arizona.

CROOK had rather attend receptions in Prescott than fight Indians in Southern Arizona.

WHILE our citizens are being murdered, Gen. Crook is hobnobbing with Tritle in Prescott.

REAL estate in Ohio has taken a jump. Mark how much will you take for your deed?

SOME of our merchants would like to see Jung's dinero. Brad, how much will you take for your bill?

GEN. CROOK is in Prescott. The Apaches are in Cochise county; also some of them are in New Mexico.

CROOK and Tritle are mapping out a campaign against the people of Cochise county, and will fight with long range guns.

IF first-class lawyers accept a jump deed to imaginary real estate in Ohio for defending a perjurer, what are Sayage's services worth to the county, reckoned on the same basis?

LORD SALISBURY's reply to the Radical taunt of Mr. Chamberlain that the premier has no policy different from that of Mr. Gladstone except that of disestablishment, and that the question of disestablishment is not likely to be considered in the next Parliament, shows that the adversary's shaft hit the mark, for in his speech at Brighton yesterday Lord Salisbury replied with much warmth, asserting that if disestablishment is not decided in the next Parliament it will be in one following, and that the conflict will be the greatest in English history. It certainly is somewhat absurd to make so much of the question of disestablishment when others of urgent importance are engaging the attention of the people, and the fact that Lord Salisbury gives it much prominence while he almost ignores the vital issue of the day is an indication of weakness which probably presages the approaching downfall of the conservative cabinet. Mr. Gladstone believes in the establishment of home rule in Ireland, and in the achievement of land and other reforms for the entire United Kingdom, and there is so much need of the work he desires to perform that it will not be strange if he is called to his old position at the head of the government by the vote of next November.

An Extraordinary Cargo.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—The bark Joshua Loring, from Havana, arrived at this port with a cargo of old bones, cracked convent bells and old metal, gathered from what is probably the most unhealthy part of the whole island of Cuba. She had as part of the old bones consignment 10,000 leaves of heads to which meat was still clinging. The vessel hardly passed More Castle, when myriads of lice, centipedes and scorpions began to make their appearance on deck and in the cabin. The captain and mate were obliged to swing hammocks to avoid these dangerous passengers. To add to the discomfort of the crew two of the men were taken down with fever. The mate of the bark said he had no doubt there were many human skulls on board the vessel, and from the character of the bones sent lying around the wharf yesterday afternoon it is probable that his suspicion is well founded.

An Unpopular Nominat.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., Oct. 21.—Moses K. Everett has been nominated for state senator by the democracy of Hunterdon county through alleged corrupt means that are said to surpass any ever used in this county. Everett was the candidate of Congressman Piddock, and by his alliance with Piddock made himself very unpopular. The respectable democrats of the county fought Everett at the caucus, but Piddock is understood to have flooded the county with money and carried the caucus. Prominent democrats in this section have informed the republicans that if they will put up a strong nominee he shall have hundreds of democratic votes. The republican primaries will be held to-morrow and the convention on Monday next.

Smallpox Epidemic.

DETROIT, Oct. 21.—The Journal's Menominee special says there are at least twenty cases of smallpox in Marinette, Wis., the disease having been brought there by a Montreal citizen. Four deaths have already occurred and many persons have been exposed.

TORONTO, Oct. 21.—The navigation season just closing has been the worst known for years. The Canadian Pacific company's line between Owen Sound and Port Arthur is the only one to report a decided improvement. Keen competition, low rates and smallpox have been the principal drawbacks—the smallpox epidemic being the sole cause of several lines of steamers laying up.

Woman's Suffrage.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 21.—The American woman's suffrage association adjourned last night after three days successful session. The Church of the Redeemer was crowded, many being unable to get standing room. Fifteen states and territories were represented. Mrs. Danway, of Oregon; Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, of Newport; Rev. Ada C. Bowers, Lucy Stone and H. B. Blackwell, of Boston, and many others made addresses. Resolutions were adopted defining the principles of the association with regard to the

of work.

Loss by Prairie Fire.

SHREVE, Ark., Oct. 21. A prairie fire was started yesterday west of the town by a spark from a locomotive which burned a threshing machine belonging to Barker Bros., a house and barn belonging to Deputy Sheriff Riggs and a stack of wheat belonging to F. J. Woodhamssee.

Two Men Smothered in Wheat.

ATKIN, Minn., Oct. 21.—Five cars loaded with wheat were dished on the Northern Pacific, five miles east of here yesterday. Two men who were stealing a ride were found suffocated in the wheat. From letters found on them they are believed to have been John R. Cochrane, of Volant, Pa., and Louis Lust, of Campagna, Ill.

Jersey Farmers Want Five per Cent.

TRENTON, Oct. 21.—The farmers in the counties of Hunterdon, Somerset, Warren and Sussex are combining to force the various candidates for the legislature to pledge their efforts and votes for a law making the legal interest on mortgages five per cent.

Panama Custom Houses.

PANAMA, Oct. 21.—The following decree establishing custom houses on the Isthmus of Panama has been issued by the President of Columbia: It is decreed that on the first day of December next the custom houses allowed by law 53, of the year 1884, shall be established and the law shall take effect. In the ports of Panama and Colon the same duties that are charged by other custom houses in the republic as importation taxes, less 40 per cent. will be charged. The regulations common to other custom houses will rule at the ports mentioned. The certifying to the statements of cargoes and invoices as enacted by articles 41, 43, 47 and 48, of the fiscal code, must be duly enforced in foreign ports from which merchandise is shipped. Great excitement and indignation exist among the merchants, who will send representatives to intercede with the government.

Another Crack.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Policeman Hunt, in charge of the dome of the capitol, gives an account to day of his experience with a crack who tried this week to jump off the railings to the roof below. He was discovered in the act and struggled with those who prevented him, claiming he was "atmosphere-proof," and that he would bound from the roof to the pavement without injury. When turning away from the capitol building he threatened to try the Brooklyn bridge or Niagara Falls. The man has disappeared from Washington and will probably be heard from in the places indicated.

Riddled With Buckshot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—At Dutch Pond, New Brighton, L. I., at 10 o'clock this morning Lemuel Collins, 15 years old, alias Dick Turpin, alias Buffalo Bill, was halted by William Sullivan, 16 years old, who raised an old musket loaded with buckshot and ordered Collins to throw up his hands or he would make a riddle of him. Collins did not obey quickly enough, and Sullivan fired. Twelve shots entered the body and head of Collins. Officer Hannon arrested Sullivan. Dr. Theodore Walser attended Collins and Justice Corbett committed Sullivan for examination.
